

Peacebuilding: What art can do

16 October, 17.00, Haus für Poesie,
Kulturbrauerei, Berlin

PROGRAMME

17h00	Opening by Sebastian Bloching/ Dr Birgit Laubach, elbarlament
17h15	Panel discussion: What can art do? On the significance of art and culture in times of conflict and war Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Lyana Mytsko, Head and Founder of Lviv Municipal Art Center, Ukraine</li><li>• Dr Shirwan Can, Paia Agency Sulimania, Project Coordinator Iraq 'Mosul Tells'</li><li>• Corine Shawi, documentary filmmaker, and Yara Nashawaty, film expert, trainers 'Creative Expression through Films' Lebanon</li><li>• Susana Abdulmajid, actress, Germany/Iraq</li><li>• Carsten Wilms, Head of Division 609 - Cultural, Societal and Media Relations with Africa and the Near and Middle East, Federal Foreign Office</li></ul> Moderation: Dr. Bente Scheller, Head of Middle East and North Africa Division, Heinrich-Böll-Stiftung
18h30	Reception with drinks and snacks Open Spaces: Project participants from Mosul and Ukraine tell their stories (short testimonials - online) The Space for Poetry invites visitors to discover animated films, comics, video diaries of 'Creative Expression through Films' and films from other elbarlament cultural projects. Presentation of the website Mosul Tells and Ouraq